The Board on Earth Sciences and Resources is the group within the National Research Council that addresses issues relating to the solid earth sciences and to natural resources, such as petroleum and minerals. Members of the Board and its committees are volunteers, who are accomplished scientists and engineers from the Nation's universities, government, and private sector. Responsibilities of the Staff Director included providing assistance to the Board and its committees in writing and disseminating reports, developing programs with those federal agencies concerned with earth science and resource issues, and supervising staff officers and support staff. The Board released eighteen reports during this two-year period.
